

SYMPHONY LIMITED

Vigil Mechanism (Whistle Blower Policy)

Preamble

As per requirement of Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Regulation 22 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, every listed company shall establish a vigil mechanism and will be applicable to directors, all stakeholders including employees and their representative bodies, if any.

Symphony Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) recognizes the value of transparency and accountability in its administrative and management practices. As a public limited and listed company, the integrity in the financial matters of the Company and the accuracy of its financial information is paramount.

The Company’s financial information guides the decision of the Board of Directors of the Company (Board). The Shareholders of the company and the financial markets rely on its information to make decisions. For these reasons, the Company must maintain a workplace where it can retain and treat all complaints concerning serious misconduct, i.e. conduct which results in violation of law by the Company or in a substantial mismanagement of Company resources, unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Company’s code of conduct or ethics policy, questionable accounting practices, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters.

All stakeholders including employees and their representative bodies, if any, should be able to raise these concerns free of any discrimination, retaliation or harassment.

Therefore, it is the policy of the Company to encourage employees, when they reasonably believe that such serious misconduct have occurred or are occurring, to report those concerns to the Company’s management as described below.

All reports will be taken seriously and will be promptly investigated. The specific action taken in any particular case depends on the nature and gravity of the conduct or circumstances reported, and the quality of the information provided. Where serious misconduct has occurred, those matters will be corrected and, if appropriate, the persons responsible will be disciplined.

Reporting

Reporting should be made as specified under Companies Act, 2013.

Additional Enforcement Information

The Company's policies and practices have been developed as a guide to our legal and ethical responsibilities to achieve and maintain the highest business standards. Conduct that violates the Company's policies will be viewed as unacceptable under the terms of employment at the Company. Certain violations of the Company's policies and practices could even subject the Company and any individual employees involved to civil and criminal penalties.
